

F7 Projects

Welcome to the F7 Project Management Module.

F7 Projects is a tool designed to help users manage projects that consist of multiple components contained in the reserves module. An example is a kitchen remodel in a clubhouse, There could be a dozen or more “kitchen” components in the reserves module. Identifying them as a single “renovation” project assures that the reserves module is updated appropriately as the project is completed.